

Metal Fabricator Job Description

Join SMF's team as our next Metal Fabricator at our Anderson, South Carolina location and get the opportunity to build, assemble, and manufacture structural metal products using a large variety of tools and machines, including welding machines, grinders, and more. Not to mention, you'll interpret blueprints, drawings and other written/verbal instructions and then weigh in on project scope and requirements. This is a great chance for a dependable hard worker to build solid experience and grow with a committed company that truly values its employees.

Job Responsibilities:

- Study and interpret assembly instructions.
- Fabricate and assemble structural metal products.
- Read and interpret blueprints, 3D models, and other engineered drawings.
- Take and understand measurements.
- Operate equipment, including but not limited to welding machines, cutting torches, grinders, drills, air arc cutters, and plasma cutters.
- Communicate with other shifts and accurately document daily production operations for maintain continuity.

Job Skills & Qualifications:

- 2 years' experience in fabricating steel and welding field preferred, or ability to demonstrate proficiency.
- Proficient in MIG for carbon steel products.
- Ability to read blueprints or follow technical specifications.
- Ability to work with hands, lift heavy objects and stand on your feet for long periods of time often doing repetitive motions.
- High School Diploma or equivalent.
- Basic mathematical skills.