

CNC MACHINIST

SUMMARY:

By joining our team as a CNC Machinist, you will play an integral role in manufacturing parts for our long list of customers. You will be responsible for setting up & running Vertical Machining Centers to drill & tap, bevel, and mill parts to tight tolerances.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Check CNC machinery is in good working order before set up
- Set up machinery to successfully conduct the run as specified
- Conduct all programming as required
- Examine and inspect the first article produced to ensure quality
- Monitor the run throughout the cycle, checking that specifications are met
- Perform all necessary machine maintenance and use equipment properly
- Abide by all safety standards at all times
- Keep all work areas clean and organized
- Strive to meet quotas without compromising quality
- Hold self to a high standard of quality, taking pride in your work
- Attend all safety and production trainings
- Be available for overtime during high volume seasons

EXPERIENCE & PHYSICAL DEMANDS:

- High school diploma or GED
- Previous manufacturing and machining experience required
- Demonstrated mechanical aptitude and basic math skills required
- Ability to use measurement instruments, and to read and understand blueprints required
- Attention to details and self-motivation.
- Capable of being on feet entire shift and lifting up to 50lbs
- Ability to follow directions and communicate effectively with quality assurance personnel and supervisor

SEND FILLED OUT APPLICATION FROM WWW.SMF-INC.COM/CAREERS & RESUME TO JMCFARLAND@SMF-INC.COM